- 12. Upon information and belief, LF, LLC is owned in whole or in part by Lowe's.

- 18. Sometime during the night, the exhaust vent coupling for the exhaust hose fell out of the unit, causing the hot exhaust from the unit to be disbursed into the small room.

- 19. As a result of exhaust heating the room, the temperatures in the room reached a temperature of almost 140 degrees Fahrenheit, causing the Decedent's untimely death.
- 20. Damages are in excess of $25,000.00.

COUNT I — WRONGFUL DEATH - STRICT LIABILITY

COME NOW Plaintiffs, by and through their undersigned counsel, and for Count I of their cause of action against Defendants, states and avers to the Court as follows:

- 21. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each and every preceding paragraph of their Petition as if set forth more fully herein.
- 22. Defendants created, manufactured, produced, advertised, and sold the AC Unit in the course of their business.
- 23. The AC Unit was sold in a defective condition and was unreasonably dangerous when put to a reasonably anticipated use, in that:
 - The heat exhaust hose could easily detach and allow hot air to fill the room trying to be cooled, without warning;
 - b. The coupling attached to the AC Unit, to which the exhaust hose was to be attached, disconnected itself from the AC Unit, allowing hot exhaust to fill the room trying to be cooled, without warning;
 - c. The AC Unit failed to have a kill switch or other similar device designed to shut off the AC Unit in the event of the detachment of the exhaust hose, the detachment of the coupling for the exhaust house, or any other necessary part of the AC Unit detached, allowing hot exhaust to fill the room trying to be cooled, without warning;

- d. The AC Unit failed to have an instrument designed to detect the ambient temperature in the space which it is located with a device designed to prevent the operation of the AC Unit over a set temperature, allowing hot exhaust to heat the room above and beyond temperatures upon which a reasonable person would anticipate the AC Unit to be effective.
- 24. At the time of the Decedent's death, the AC Unit was being used in a manner that was reasonably anticipated, namely using the AC Unit to provide cool air to a room.
- 25. Defendants, as designers, manufacturers, advertisers, distributers and sellers of the defective product are strictly liable for all damage directly and proximately caused by the AC Unit.
- 26. Even though Defendants knew or should have known of the dangers associated with the AC Unit, they did not give adequate warning of the danger that the exhaust hose would detach and fill the room with very hot air.
- 27. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' dangerous and defective product, Decedent lost his life on or about August 6 or 7, 2017.
- 28. Prior to August 6, 2017 Decedent was a healthy, active, able-bodied 2-year-old boy and was actively participating in family affairs.
- 29. Plaintiffs are members of the class of persons entitled to bring this action pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.080.1(1), and are entitled further to bring such action for the use and benefit of themselves and all other class one beneficiaries entitled to recover pursuant to the provisions of the Missouri Wrongful Death statute.
- 30. As a direct and proximate result of the dangerous and defective product of Defendants, Plaintiffs, as well as the remaining members of the family of Decedent, have sustained damages and have been or will continue to be permanently deprived of the reasonable value of the society, service, affection, comfort, support, love, and companionship of Decedent, such as existed prior to the aforesaid wrongful death, and have suffered damages in the past and will continue to suffer damages in the future.

- 31. As a direct and proximate result of the dangerous and defective product of Defendants, Plaintiffs have been forced to pay funeral and burial expenses for Decedent.
- 32. Pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.080 and Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.090, Plaintiffs, for and on behalf of Decedent, deceased, prays for such damages as Decedent could have recovered against Defendants had he not died.
- 33. Pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.080 and Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.090, Plaintiffs, for and on behalf of Decedent, deceased, pray for fair and reasonable damages and for his personal injuries and damage suffered after the aforesaid occurrence and prior to his death, along with all other damages allowed pursuant to Missouri law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray this Court for Judgment on Count I of their Petition for the wrongful death of their son, Maximus Odin Porterfield, as against Defendants, for damages as are fair and reasonable, and according to statute, for costs and interest as allowable by Missouri law, and for any other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper in the premises.

COUNT II—WRONGFUL DEATH - NEGLIGENCE

COME NOW Plaintiffs, by and through their undersigned counsel, and for Count II of their cause of action against Defendants, states and avers to the Court as follows:

- 34. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference each and every preceding paragraph of their Petition as if set forth more fully herein.
- 35. Defendants created, manufactured, produced, advertised, distributed and sold the AC Unit in the course of their business.
- 36. The AC Unit was sold with a latent defect and/or hazard and was unreasonably dangerous when put to a reasonably anticipated use, for all the reasons set forth in Count I, supra.
- 37. At the time of the Decedent's death, the AC Unit was being used in a manner that was reasonably anticipated, namely using the AC Unit to provide cool air to a room.
- 38. Defendants failed to use ordinary care to manufacture and/or design the AC Unit to be reasonably safe and are liable for all damages directly and proximately caused by the AC Unit.
- 39. Defendants failed to warn of the known, or should have been known by using ordinary care, risk of harm from the hidden defect and/or hazard in that they did not warn the exhaust hose could become unattached and fill any room the AC Unit was in with dangerously hot air.
- 40. Defendants had no reason to believe that the end user of the AC Unit would realize the danger posed by the product's defect and/or hazard.
- 41. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' negligence, Decedent lost his life on or about August 6 or 7, 2017.
- 42. Prior to August 6, 2017 Decedent was a healthy, active, able-bodied 2-year-old boy and was actively participating in family affairs.

- 43. Plaintiffs are members of the class of persons entitled to bring this action pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.080.1(1), and are entitled further to bring such action for the use and benefit of themselves and all other class one beneficiaries entitled to recover pursuant to the provisions of the Missouri Wrongful Death statute.
- 44. As a direct and proximate result of the negligence/defective product of Defendants, Plaintiffs, as well as the remaining members of the family of Decedent, have sustained damages and have been or will continue to be permanently deprived of the reasonable value of the society, service, affection, comfort, support, love, and companionship of Decedent, such as existed prior to the aforesaid wrongful death, and have suffered damages in the past and will continue to suffer damages in the future.
- 45. As a direct and proximate result of the dangerous/defective product of Defendants, Plaintiffs have been forced to pay funeral and burial expenses for Decedent.
- 46. Pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.080 and Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.090, Plaintiffs, for and on behalf of Decedent, deceased, prays for such damages as Decedent could have recovered against Defendants had he not died.
- 47. Pursuant to Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.080 and Mo. Rev. Stat. § 537.090, Plaintiffs, for and on behalf of Decedent, deceased, pray for fair and reasonable damages and for his personal injuries and damage suffered after the aforesaid occurrence and prior to his death, along with all other damages allowed pursuant to Missouri law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray this Court for Judgment on Count II of their Petition for the wrongful death of their son, Maximus Odin Porterfield, as against Defendants, for damages as are fair and reasonable, and according to statute, for costs and interest as allowable by Missouri law, and for any other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper in the premises.
